... and all because Angela Merici was born in 1474.

Students in an Ursuline school are growing to be individuals who are...

united in harmony, being bound to one another by the bond of love, respecting each other, helping each other and bearing with each other.

grateful for their own gifts, for the gift of others, and for the blessings of each day; and generous with their gifts, in the service of others.

openly listening to their experience and to their vocation or calling in life; and being attentive to the choices they make and the effects of those choices.

loving in their just actions and forgiving words and compassionate towards others, near and far, especially the less fortunate;

faith-filled in their beliefs and hopeful for the future.

courageous in their actions and interactions with others and resilient in the face of challenge and change.

discerning and reflective in their studies and other activities and joyful in their engagement with the world.

leading others in the pursuit of justice for all.

conducting their lives, in both words and actions, as witnesses to the truth that is Jesus Christ, acting with integrity, nurturing relationships built on trust.

SERVIAM: serving in the daily routines of school life, life at home, life in the local community, life in the wider world.

“Act, move, believe, strive, hope, cry out to him with all your heart for without doubt you will see marvellous things.”

St Angela, Prologue to the Counsels, 16-18

Ursuline schools help their students grow...

By encouraging them to be united in harmony in their friendships, classes, year groups, school, local and global communities.

By encouraging them to know and be grateful for all their gifts, developing them to their full so that they can be generous in their service of others.

By promoting the practice of reflective listening and attentive decision making in teaching, prayers and retreats; and through the practice and example of school leaders and staff.

By being loving and compassionate in the way students are treated, especially when a student is troubled; and by opening students' eyes to those who suffer poverty, injustice or violence.

By passing on the living and faith-filled tradition of Jesus Christ; by having unending faith in the students, and by encouraging them in turn, to have faith and hope in others.

By providing a safe and secure environment in which students can mature as courageous, informed citizens of the world, fully aware of the dignity of the person, and can grow as young adults who are both emotionally and spiritually resilient.

By continuously developing the distinctive and discerning ethos of an Ursuline school which allows students to cultivate their faith, beliefs and talents; and to be joyful in their outlook and appreciative of the world in all its wonders.

By providing opportunities for leading in the spirit of Jesus Christ "the servant king", and by keeping justice at the centre of both the spiritual and academic curriculum.

By acting with truth and integrity in their relationships with their students, modelling the Ursuline tradition of reconciliation and peace.

By creating a high trust culture, enabling both staff and students to flourish and to share wisdom without fear of criticism or rebuke. In sharing wisdom, we are living SERVIAM

Cozzano said of ANGELA

"SHE WAS LIKE

... a sun that gave
light to all the others.

... a fire and a furnace of love which enflamed them.

HER WORDS WERE

ardent,

powerful,

gentle, and pronounced with such strength of grace

that each one felt compelled to say:

GOD IS HERE."
